WARRANTS FOR ATTORNEYS

Sensational Move in the Mary B. Conder Eviction Case.

ABETTING FORGERY

David Van Etten and H. E. Rich, with Martin Quick and J. H. Johnson, Accused of Irregularities in Connection with Appeal Bond.

Warrants were sworn out yesterday morn ing in police court for the arrest of Attorneys David Van Etten and H. E. Rich and Martin Quick on the charge of forgery and uttering forged paper. There are two counts of this kind against the three men. J. H. Johnson, one of the men, who the police way acted as a go-between for the defendants, is under arrest at the city jail. He was arrested on the charge of forgery yesterday at East Omaha by Detectives Dunn and Donahue.

Th complaints against the accused men were drawn up by Assistant County Attorney Day and sworn to by V. O. Strickler, attorney for the Portsmouth Savings bank. The two counts cite that the men were aiders and abettors to the forging of the name of Hans J. Johnson, an engineer, and owner of lot 22 in Sherman Avenue addition to Omaha, by J. H. Johnson, a young man, who they secured to impersonate the weal Johnson, to a forged deed of his property, and also to the forging of a deed to 160 acres of land in Center County, near Broken Bow, the property of a man named Vroman. These forged deeds, it is alleged in the complaints, were used in qualifying on a bond of $300 in an appeal case from a justice court to Judge Baxter's court.

The offenses alleged are said to have been committed about August 30. Van Etten and Rich were attorneys for a Mary B. Conder who was evicted from her home at Sixteenth and Wirt streets by the Portsmouth Savings bank because she was in arrears to the institution to the amount of $100 for rent. This summary treatment of the tenant was authorized by a judgment and a writ of ouster secured in a justice court by the bank people. From the decision of the justice court Attorneys Van Etten and Rich took an appeal to Judge Baxter's court. The appeal bond was fixed at $300. J. H. Johnson impersonated, it is alleged, Hans J. Johnson, and went on the bond as a surety after qualifying by exhibiting forged deeds to Hans Johnson's property. The other surety on the bond was Ethel McBurney, a niece of Mrs. Conder, who, it is alleged, qualified with a forged deed to 160 acres of land in Custer county given her by Martin Quick. Rich was arrested about 3 o'clock and

Van Etten and Quick severa? hours later. All were released on bonds in the sum of $1,000 each. The date of their arraignment on the charge will be set Monday. None of the accused will talk of the matter for publication. Ethel McBurney, who had a forged deed to 160 acres of land near Broken Bow will not be drawn into the case as the investigation by the detectives and County Attorney Day proved that she had no knowledge that the deed which had been given her by Quick as a present was
